

POPPY AND GEOFF SPENCER
RELATIONAL EXPERTS AND WORK-LIFE STRATEGISTS

1 Billion Seconds to Get to Happily Ever After

Three decades ago, their communication skills were completely underdeveloped. Their communication breakdown shaped who they've become today and why they wrote the book, created and patented a tool, and have spoken to hundreds of people about the #1 essential ingredient in any relationship.

“We help you choreograph your communication,” is the motto of relationship experts, Poppy and Geoff Spencer, one they learned to put into practice through their many years of communication research. Myers-Briggs Certified, and with 7 years as a psychology professor, Poppy and Geoff created the Emotional Clock®, they successfully use across the country to revolutionize the way people interact and communicate.

In the spirit of Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice and Nicholas Sparks' The Notebook, the true story of 1 Billion Seconds is told through the lens of Jesse, an ethereal entity—a “relational choreographer”—similar to Clarence in It's a Wonderful Life.
